The Agreement is made between the parent/carer (“Parent”, “Carer”, “you” or “your”) of each enrolled student (“Student”, “Child”) by a Parent and David Stinson Theatre School (“David Stinson Theatre School”, “we”, “our”, “us”) (legally known as International Performing Arts & Theatre Limited) and is valid at all times whilst the child is enrolled at David Stinson Theatre School and until such a time as written notice is given in accordance with these Terms & Conditions.

- 2.2 Each student will be offered one free trial place which is allocated on a 'first come, first served' basis. If the parent/carer decides to enrol their child to the David Stinson Theatre School, then a one-off sign-up fee of £35 must be paid which covers the cost of the David Stinson Theatre School T-Shirt, Hoodie and Information Pack.

Where a letter or invoice is specifically issued, payment must be made within 30 days of receipt, except where a payment plan is already in place or to be made with the approval of a director.
- 3.2 David Stinson Theatre School accepts the following payment methods:
- Online Payments (BACs, Direct Debit, Standing Order)
 - Card Payments (In-person or over the telephone)

5. HOLIDAY CLUBS

5.1 David Stinson Theatre School provides full-time holiday clubs (also known as David Stinson Holiday Clubs) during the October Half Term Break, February Half Term Break, Easter Holiday Fortnight, May Half Term Break, and during the School Summer Holiday.

5.2 Dates of Holiday Clubs are released in advance on the David Stinson Theatre School website. The clubs open daily from 8:00 am until 6:00 pm (on the last day each holiday club week, students perform in a mini show and the Holiday Club closes at 3.30 pm). Our normal activity hours are 9:00 am until 3:00 pm, the extended day commences from 3:30 pm until 6:00 pm.

5.3 For the avoidance of doubt, the trial period and sibling discounts detailed in sections 3 and 4 above do not apply to Holiday Clubs. There are no free trials available for the Holiday Clubs and unfortunately, there is no sibling discount.

5.4 David Stinson Theatre School does not accept childcare vouchers or the tax-free childcare allowance. We are a registered private company and not a 'childcare company'. One of the ways that we keep our weekly Holiday Club fees so low, is by keeping administrative costs to a minimum. By having an automatic online booking system, this means that the David Stinson Theatre School has very little administrative duties to fulfil; however, should we introduce childcare vouchers, this would increase our administrative and operational costs that would consequently mean we have to increase the fees considerably.

5.5 Packed lunches, snacks and drinks should be brought every day by students attending the Holiday Clubs. We encourage healthy eating at our school and appreciate if you could help us with that commitment. A refillable water bottle is also required so that students can fill them up and remain hydrated throughout the day. Parents/carers should take care so as not to place any allergens into the lunches of students. If the David Stinson Theatre School advises you of a particular allergen not to be packed, then this guidance must be followed on the grounds of Health and Safety. We reserve the right to prohibit the attendance of any student who contravenes this guidance more than once.

5.6 Drop Off

- Parents/Carers can drop off students between 8:00 am – 9:00 am.
- All students should be at the David Stinson Theatre School by 9:00 am, ready to commence their first activity.
- If Parents/Carers are running late for dropping off a student, then a text message should be sent to the Principal to inform them so arrangements can be made for gates and doors, (only send a text if it is safe to do so).
- Parents/Carers are not encouraged to stay, and our Safeguarding Policy does not allow for Parents/Carers to be present in the classrooms or learning areas unless they have had the relevant safeguarding checks through the David Stinson Theatre School.
- During the 1 hour drop off time and during the extended day, the activities that we offer will vary to that of the core 9:00 am- 3:00 pm activities.

5.7 Pick Up

- Parents/carers should pick their child up promptly, between 3:00 pm and 3:30 pm.
- The David Stinson Theatre School offers an extended day option charged at £10 per day. This can be Pay As You Go or pay in advance by emailing the David Stinson Theatre School.
- Parents/Carers should inform the David Stinson Theatre School in the morning of any other adult that will be picking their child/ren up.
- If a Student is left in our care after 3.30pm, the Parent/Carer will automatically be charged the Extended Day fee of £10.
- Late pickups will be charged at £10 for every 15 minutes late, after 6:00 pm.
- On the last day of each holiday school week, there will be a performance at 3:00 pm. Gates open at approximately 2:55 pm for parents/carers/audience to be seated. There is not an extended day option for the end of week show day (usually Friday) and all children must be collected by 3:30 pm. We charge £3 per adult who attends the performance and this money is donated to our chosen charity.
- Extended Day sessions will consist of an array of alternative activities that are designed for fun and creativity, for more information please email the David Stinson Theatre School.

5.8 If you decide that you would like to cancel your child/ren's place on a Holiday Club, unfortunately, we will not provide a refund. However, we will transfer the booking to an alternative future holiday club of your choice, within the next 12 months, and subject to availability. If the place has not been paid for prior to wishing to cancel, an invoice will be still be sent to the parent/carer due to pay and must be paid within 30 days of receipt. Our Holiday Clubs are staffed according to the number of students we have enrolled, which is why this condition is in place.

5.9 If a parent/carer needs to make a change to a booking from one week to another week, then please email info@davidstinsontheatreschool.com

Changes are subject to availability on the week to be changed to.

8. BEHAVIOUR

- 8.1 David Stinson Theatre School have a positive behaviour management policy in place with both sanction and reward systems. By booking a place parents/carers accept that students will be bound by the expectations, and behaviour systems we have. In our approach to behaviour management, we have a traffic light system. Green is positive behaviour and doing as expected. Amber is a short time out reflection due to failing to meet expectations. Red is when a more serious failure or continuing failure to meet expectations has occurred; when red has been reached a conversation will usually be had with the parent/carer. If the behaviour is a serious risk or there is no de-escalation of behaviour, then the parent/carer will be asked to collect the student.
- 8.2 Parents/carers accept that if they have a concern about the implementation of these systems or concern about the behaviour of a student at any David Stinson Theatre School activities then the parent/carer will raise these confidentially with the Principal and/or Director.
- 8.3 David Stinson Theatre School reserve the right to temporarily exclude or permanently expel any student from participating because their behaviour poses a risk to the safety of staff and or other students. If we do decide to take such action, it is at the discretion of the Principal and/or Director whether or not to issue a refund for any monies already paid.
- 8.4 As per 7.6, if a student has any Special Education Need or Disabilities or factors impacting upon their learning or behaviour, it is the responsibility of the parent/carer to inform David Stinson Theatre School on the enrolment form/webform/booking form at the time of booking. David Stinson Theatre School will complete a risk assessment and consider how best to support the student.
